

1. The leader of American troops at the Battle of the River Raisin was Gen. _____.
A Monroe street named after him still exists today.
2. Tall soldiers who often wore tall pointed hats to make them appear even larger were called _____.
3. A _____ was a type of gun used at the Battle of the River Raisin.
4. Years after the River Raisin battle, _____ still littered the scene of the battle and areas around old French Town.
5. Some _____, or artifacts of the battle are housed in the Monroe County Historical _____.
6. British troops wore red coats to hide the _____ if they became wounded.
7. Many famous residents as well as soldiers who fought in the Battle of the River Raisin are buried in _____ Cemetery in Monroe.
8. Many of the soldiers who fought on the American side at the River Raisin battlefield were from the State of _____.
9. A flintlock rifle usually fired a _____.
10. A _____ is a small building in a cemetery where the remains of the dead are kept.
11. The River Raisin Battlefield is now a _____ _____.
12. British and Indian forces at the Battle of the River Raisin had an artillery unit that consisted of six _____.
13. There long have been rumors that the battlefield is visited by _____.